

EC Textiles & Fabrics Company

Thursday, 22 July 2010

If you do a search at PhishBucket for the word 'Textiles' you'll see why our eyes are rolling at this offer. It's a classic money transfer/mule scam. They claim they want you to handle payments from their clients.

You shouldn't even dignify these offers with responses. They are always scams. Anyone who asks you to use your own bank account to do company business needs a rock thrown at their head. Either they are trying to launder stolen money (from robbing online account information) or they're trying to get you to withdraw the money and wire it before the bank finds out it was bogus and reverses the transaction.

If you've been unemployed for a while, you can't afford what these people are about to do to you. If the money currently in your account is what's keeping you from living on the street, we suggest you pass up offers like this for greener (and more legitimate) pastures.
